Bud Reynolds in the Land of Grass-hoppers.

NEOLA, KANS., Dec. 5.—As I promised so many before leaving Kentucky that I would write, I know of no better way to write to all than through the I. J. I left Waynesburg with my family for Kansas on Nov. 16, over the Q. & C. Our hearts were heavy and our minds would constantly go back to the many friends we were leaving behind. We were met at Ludlow by our nephew, Oz Reynolds, and his pleasant wife, at 5:40 P. M. We ate supper and spent two hours most pleasantly with them. We left Kentucky soil at 8:30 P. M. via Covington Suspension Bridge. Left Cincinnati at 9 P. M. and day light of the 17th found us speeding through Western Illinois on a Big Four fast train. We reached St. Louis at 7:30 A. M. and had an hour and 30 minutes in which to get cinders out of our eyes, wash our faces and eat breakfast before leaving St. Louis over the Missouri Pacific. It was a beautiful day, and it added a great deal to the beauty of the scenery. We passed for many miles along the Missouri river, and must say that Missouri has as good looking blue grass land (almost) as Kentucky and her growing wheat is the best I have seen. At St. Louis we telegraphed our old friend and cousin, John Reynolds, at Sedalia, Mo., that we would stop and pay him a 24 hours' visit; so on reaching that place we were met by him and taken to his home, where a splendid dinner awaited us. He left nothing undone to make our stay pleasant. Sedalia is one of the prettiest and most up-to-date towns I was ever in. It has a population of 40,000 to 45,000 and is growing fast. It is on a rich, level prairie and her blue grass and fine horses make one think of home. I was taken to the top of the splendid, new court house, where one gets a fine view of the city and country. To reach the top of the court house dome one has to climb 142 steps. The Missouri State Fair has its buildings and ground here, and any citizen of Sedalia is bound to be proud of them. We left Sedalia at 3 P. M. on the 18th and reached Kansas City at 5:30, where we took supper and waited until 11 P. M. before leaving for our destination. Most of our 5 1/2 hours' wait was spent in seeing the sights of the city as best we could by night. At 11 o'clock we bid farewell to our friend, John Reynolds (who had come with us from Sedalia) and started over the fast Rock Island road for our destination. At Turon, Kas., which place we reached at 10 A. M., on the 19th, we were met by friends and were soon made to feel that we were not altogether among strangers.

The weather has behaved very well, only slight rains falling up to yesterday, when it got on a tear and snowed and "blowed" all day and was rather cold, but to-day it is clear and still and a little warmer. The ground is covered with snow.

I have rented a farm at Neola and moved to it Dec. 1. If this don't reach the waste basket, in my next I will give a description of our new home and tell you how I like the Sunflower (Grasshopper) State.

M. G. REYNOLDS.

Forced Into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1. trial bottle free, guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

As a special request in order that they may serve their sentence during the winter months and be out in time to put in crops next Spring, William Still, Joe Plyman and Tom Goosey, three of the moonshiners arrested in Estill county, were taken to Catlettsburg from Richmond for trial at the present term of the Federal Court in session there.

Pains of women, head pains, or any pain stopped in 20 minutes sure, with Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. See full formula on 25c box. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Early to shop and early to stop is the wise way. But many a girl follows the whirl Day after day.

Nervous dyspepsia, be sensible; try, Mi-o-na; it relieves at once. It cures nervousness in a few weeks. G. L. Penny guarantees it. Large box 50c.

W. W. Noe, president of the First State Bank of Harlan, died at Pineville, where he had gone for treatment.

HUSTONVILLE.

The choir meets Friday evening next, for rehearsal at the home of G. C. Riffe on Danville Ave.

Hon. Harvey Helm has secured an increase of pension for George Bailey, colored, of this place.

Jesse O. Carpenter has returned from Cincinnati, where he purchased a new outfit for his livery barn.

A camp of Cuban beggars with wagons, animals, etc., have been camping near here for some time. Look out for them.

A 10-pound magistrate has arrived at Helmwood Heights to further bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Helm and to lovingly attend them in their declining years.

Virgil Denham, son of J. P. Denham, living near Jumbo, and Miss Miss Maud Baugh were married by Rev. Long on last Tuesday. They have gone to house-keeping on his father's farm.

Mrs. Mattie Beazley, of Moreland, and a Mr. Vance, of Tennessee, aroused old Bro. Burk the coldest night of last week and had him to pronounce the ceremony in his bare feet—only had on his trousers. What the hurry was, no one explained.

On account of increased business the Hustonville Produce Co. has rented additional storage barns and poultry lots. They bought $296.50 worth of eggs from one man Saturday and they have 1,000 turkeys to ship this week and about as many chickens.

Miss Bettie Lyon, daughter of Evan Lyon, who has been the guest of relatives and friends at Springfield, Ill., for a few weeks, was married there on the 8th to Albert Coleman. Mr. Coleman is in business there and he and his bride will not be able to visit Kentucky until next summer.

The ladies bazaar at the Emporium Flats Saturday was overwhelmed with success. Their receipts were $135 and they have some very desirable stock on hands yet. The supper was fit for a Lord and the service inimitable. The management tenders its thanks to patrons and friends and claims now the same date for their Elysian bazaar next year.

Among the live stock shipments from here last week were: One car of hogs at 6c to 7c, and one car of heavy corn fed cattle at 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 by Myers & Vaughn. Riffe & Tucker shipped some mixed hogs and butcher cattle at 6c and 3 to 4c. Coulter & McCormack shipped a car of butcher cattle at 3 to 4c and one of hogs at 6 1/2 to 7c.

Cornelius Floyd, the efficient teacher of the Jumbo school, and Miss Ethel Bastin, both of Waynesburg, were married Dec. 5 by Rev. Lee, at Grove, Ky. The professor is preparing for a splendid Christmas entertainment at his school. The exercises will be interesting and a Christmas tree will make many hearts leap for joy. All invited. The cold spell last week almost depopulated the six schools on Rural Route No. 1. The Richards school, having the largest attendance in good weather, dropped to the lowest in bad, there being only a dozen or so present. The Smith school taught by Miss Stella Hubble, had the largest attendance. This is due to the popularity of the teacher.

The tobacco growers in this part of the county and in Casey are reaping an unprecedented harvest at this time. The volume of money that is brought in here daily would surprise your readers. Pardon at Moreland, Peavyhouse & Sons, of this place, and Kincaid & West at McKinney are getting the bulk of it. There is already talk of pitching larger crops next Spring.

The McDowell Medical Society of Cincinnati on Thursday evening last celebrated the hundredth anniversary of the first ovarian operation by any known surgeon in the world. Dr. Ephraim McDowell, of Danville, Ky., was the man who did it. Several Kentucky doctors were invited and attended and the encomiums they showered upon their entertainers would fill a volume. Dr. Fayette Dunlap, of Danville, was one of the speakers and his address was received with marked enthusiasm. Dr. Louis Schwab, mayor-elect of Cincinnati, presided with all the dignity of a Cushing. The banquet was held at the "Hotel Alma" and it looked as if the "Queen City" had been gleaned for all the good things within its walls. It was superb and heartily enjoyed. Not one drop of wine or any other intoxicant was on the table—a vast improvement over former customs.

The cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made is Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. It is fine in flavor—and is made in just one minute. No tedious 20 or 30 minutes boiling. Made from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Sample free. Penny's Drug Store.

Dave McQueen, colored, was given a life sentence by the Fayette circuit court for killing Leon Yandell. McQueen admitted the killing, but claimed he shot in self-defense.

E. C. WALTON

of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

MR. MANN, of Illinois, has introduced a bill prescribing drastic penalties for the white slave traffic. It makes it a crime for any person to aid, entice or force any female to go from one State to another for immoral purposes, with a fine of $5,000 and imprisonment for five years. If the girl be under 18 the penalty is 10 years and $10,000 fine. Mr. Mann does not think that even this severe punishment will deter all the brutes engaged in the business, but even if it results in the reduction of immorality it will be of great service. The horrors of the traffic are fearful to contemplate and hanging is too good for those found engaging in it. We hope Mr. Mann's bill will become a law.

IN our absence, this paper went after Hon. Harvey Helm pretty hot on the proposition of a government building in Stanford. As a matter of fact we want a government building, we need one and must have one and we are confident that our Congressman will use his every effort for the establishment of one at his home town here, while he is preparing to place them over his district. Mr. Helm knows Stanford's needs and he is far too patriotic a son of Lincoln county to let anything good pass us by. In the mean time the I. J. will appoint itself a committee to look for a good and suitable site.

THE Lancaster Record gives us too much credit. We voted a dozen or so times more or less, for a new court house and urged through these columns the necessity of a new and adequate temple of justice, but the lion's share of the credit is due our sterling young men, who took the bit in their mouths and showed the "moss-backs" a thing or two. By the way, come over and take a peek at the magnificent building. 'Tis worth coming miles to see.

NEWS comes from Washington that Congressman Edwards has split with Senator Bradley and Congressmen Bennett and Langley over the appointment of a district attorney for the Eastern district. The former wants H. C. Eversole, of Owensley, and the three latter desire Lewis L. Walker, of Lancaster. We wish they would compromise on Hon. G. M. Davidson, of this place.

THE National Monetary Commission has completed a comprehensive study of the banking and monetary systems of the leading nations of the world and will soon publish a limited number of volumes containing the details and results of its findings. Congress will be asked to authorize the publication of the volumes in large numbers for sale at a nominal price.

REV. I. J. SPENCER, pastor of the Central Christian church, Lexington, strenuously objects to Kentucky women being classed with horses as one of the things for which Kentucky is famous. He declares that the reference to women in this connection shows a degraded taste and that the pointed praise of physical beauty in women lacks refinement.

MR. W. P. WALTON is making the editorial page of the Lexington Gazette fairly bristle with his trenchant pen. It is the feature of that good paper and we do not wonder at the popularity of the publication. It is the best afternoon paper in the State and by odds the best paper ever published in Lexington.

If you have a leg or an arm cut off, take Novocaine. A New York woman had a severe operation performed and so great is the anesthetic that she watched the proceedings for a while, and tiring of seeing the doctors use the knife on her, she procured a book and read until they got through.

JOHN R. CHARLESWORTH, who has been editing Charley Moore's old Blue Grass Blade since the owner's death, has changed the name of the paper to The Rationalist, since Mr. Charlesworth became president of the organization of Rationalists.

PRESIDENT TAFT accepted an invitation to attend the conservation convention to be held at Indianapolis in February. When he goes to the Indiana city he will likewise make brief visits to Louisville, Cincinnati and Nashville.

CONGRESS expects to be unusually busy this week in an effort to clear away as much routine business as possible in readiness for the sterner controversies that will follow the holiday adjournment.

Who would have thought it? Your "Uncle Jo" Blackburn has resigned as a member of the Isthmian Canal Commission. Truly the days of miracles are again upon us.

A COVINGTON saloon-keeper killed himself because business was dull. Looks like the rum saloon is going of its own accord.

POLITICAL.

Congress will adjourn for the holidays December 21, and the Christmas recess will continue for two weeks, terminating January 4.

Announcement was made at Indianapolis that Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, will speak there January 20. He is to speak under the auspices of the Indiana Manufacturers' Bureau.

The next Legislature will be asked to create a State Engineering Department, in charge of a competent engineer, for the purpose of having supervision of road building in Kentucky.

In a caucus at Washington Democrats elected Senator H. D. Money, of Mississippi, as minority leader of the Senate to succeed Senator Culberson, of Texas, whose resignation was presented.

A controversy over railroad legislation will be participated in Congress this winter, which, in intensity of interest and gravity of importance, promises to surpass the legislative conflict over railroad rates four years ago.

A bill evidently designed to cover cases of contempt of court similar to that of President Gompers and his associates of the American Federation of Labor and greatly restricting the power of the courts in such cases, was introduced in the House by Representative R. Y. Thomas, of Kentucky.

With the re-election of Joseph E. Ransdell, a member of Congress from Louisiana, as president; Capt. J. F. Ellison, of Cincinnati, as secretary-treasurer, and John A. Fox, of Arkansas, as special director, and declaring through its resolutions for a new department for treatment of waterway improvements, the Rivers and Harbors Congress adjourned at Washington.

Representative Helm has introduced two bills of interest to Madison county. One appropriates $6,000 to build a bridge over Otter Creek, and the other $14,600 to build a similar bridge and approaches thereto over Tates Creek. Both bridges have been made necessary by the back water from the locks and dams recently constructed by the government on the Kentucky river.

The officers of the Garrard circuit court and members of the Lancaster bar gave a banquet at the Hotel Kenngarian in honor of Judge W. C. Bell, of Harrodsburg, who is holding his last term of court there.

Jeppha Guinn, formerly a member of the Middlesboro police force, and Leonard Anderson, son of a prominent Lee county, Virginia, farmer, were run over and instantly killed at Big Stone Gap, Va., by a locomotive.

W. A. Reynolds and C. L. Evans, of Junction City, and J. Beecher Adams, of Danville, have bought the Lillard drug store at Danville. Mr. Adams, who is a registered pharmacist, will have charge of the business. "Old Beech" will run it right, we predict.

A Lancaster special says: The grand jury made no finding in the case against County Judge A. D. Ford, charged by State Inspector Thatcher with malfeasance in office. Judge Ford was given a signed statement exonerating him of any criminal purpose or intentional violation of the law. The grand jury made no report in Circuit Clerk J. W. Hamilton's case.

Indictments were returned by the Federal grand jury at Toledo, O., against 16 Sicilians, charging a conspiracy to use the mails in an attempt to extort money from John Avicton, an Italian merchant of Columbus, and 14 others. The defendants are alleged members of the Society of the Banana, and alleged Blackhand organization of widely extended membership.

Lawrence Perin, of Baltimore, whose eccentric actions recently attracted attention in Spain, has been detained at Tangier at the request of representatives of the United States government pending instructions from the State Department at Washington.

Beginning at Wednesday night's prayer meeting, Rev. D. M. Walker, of the Christian church, will preach a series of sermons on "Prayer." He asks as full an attendance at these meetings as possible.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Female Complaints, it's unequalled. Only 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

BURNED TO DEATH.—An eight-year-old daughter of Sherrod Davis, who lives on Mr. John B. Foster's farm, was so badly burned Friday that she died a few hours later. The little body was fearfully burned from chin to knees but strange to say the child did not suffer. The mother had gone out for water and it is supposed that her daughter's dress caught while warming her feet. A neighbor named Long, seeing the perilous condition of the little one, wrapped a blanket around her and smothered the flames, but it was too late, the fire had done its work. The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon.

HIGGINS.—Mr. Tim W. Higgins, who was raised in this county, died of pneumonia at Ensley, Ala., Saturday night, aged 59. For the past 10 years he had made his home at Somerset but went South for the winter. He had spent some time at the home of his relative, Mrs. P. E. Kemp, at Anniston, Ala., and went from there only a few weeks ago to visit Mrs. Kittie King, another relative, at whose home he died after a brief illness. Mr. Higgins had many relatives here, including Mr. W. H. Higgins, Dr. T. W. Pennington and Mesdames George D. Hopper and Adelia Woods. He was a fine gentleman and very popular wherever he was known. Deceased was a devout member of the Baptist church. The burial will take place at Somerset this afternoon. Dr. Pennington, Mrs. Woods and others will attend.

If practice makes perfect, and they say "she do," "What's Next," to be given by local talent at Walton's Opera House next Friday night, 17th, should be rendered with a perfection that is unusual for amateurs. The members have been practicing for the big event since early Fall and have burned midnight oil (and tons of coal) in their efforts to give a satisfactory performance.

News comes that Mr. Timothy Engleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Engleman, formerly of this county, but now of Pueblo, Col., has been made head of the Blowmen's Department of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Co. The promotion carries with it a handsome increase in salary and places him in line for the office of superintendent. The young gentleman's friends and relatives in this section are glad to learn of his good fortune and hope for him still greater success.

THE court of appeals reversed the Boyle circuit court in the case of the C. N. O. & T. P. railroad against John Yocum's administrator. Yocum was a signal repairman on the railroad, riding from point to point on a railroad tricycle. He was killed near Danville, and a jury in the lower court awarded his administrator $9,000 damages. The court says it was Yocum's own negligence that caused his death and directed peremptory instructions for the railroad. Yocum formerly lived in the Southern end of this county.

THE Cumberland Valley Land Co., with headquarters at the First National Bank here, declared another dividend Saturday, this time one of 12 per cent, making 202 per cent. in dividends this splendidly managed concern has declared. Its capital stock is $96,850. It still has 3,600 acres of valuable mountain land and other property. It is the biggest taxpayer in Lincoln county and by odds the best paying concern. The managers have taken their holdings off of the market and will not offer them again until the railroad which is being built near the land is completed. Mr. J. S. Hocker is general manager of the company and his handling of the big concern has proven his fitness to do big things.

Go to Walton's Opera House Friday night, if you want to know what will happen next. JOHN J. MOSER has sold to Tim W. Hutchinson his place of 40 acres on Gilberts Creek for $3,100.

FARRIS R. FELAND, of Lawrenceburg, is holding the term of the Rockcastle circuit court which begun yesterday. Judge Jarvis is ill. WE regret the defeat of our good friend and former townsman, Mr. H. C. Bright, for mayor of Danville. He was defeated by J. M. Wallace.

YESTERDAY was all sorts of a day except a good one. It began with rain and then it snowed. The bad weather cut down the court day crowd considerably. OF all the plays that you have ever seen played, the greatest play, will be played at Walton's Opera House next Friday evening, Dec. 17th. Admission, 25c, 35c and 50c.

REMEMBER.—When buying canned fruits and vegetables that quality is what counts. Fulton's Pride canned goods are of exceptional quality. Sold exclusively by G. D. Hopper. ON account of Hon. George E. Stone, one of the attorneys for the defense, having to make a business trip to Cincinnati, the trial of Nathan Pipes, on the charge of poisoning cattle belonging to W. G. Cowan, of the West End, rested Thursday and will be resumed at Hustonville this morning.

IN speaking of the defeat of local option at Somerset, the Republican, edited by the Messrs. Hansford, says: "The transient fellows, some of whom were here on purpose to vote that way helped to do it. The town has been full of wholesale drink dealers for many days, who helped to bring it about. Two dollars down, before voting and a promise of, from three to 20, after the town had voted wet, did more than anything else. Little men sold out and so did big ones."

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful. Gently though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.
